A dangerous goods fire closed the Coq in both directions early Monday morning — during the year's busiest travel weekend with as many as 25,000 vehicles travelling the highway.

Hazmat team attends, air quality advisory

The Coquihalla re-opened northbound at 5am yesterday morning, 24 hours after it was closed due to a truck fire which began in the cab & spread to the hazardous cargo in the trailer. Hazmat teams were on site for clean-up. Southbound traffic re-opened a few hours later with 10-min delays through the day, while crews removed the remains of the tractor trailer.

Interior Health issued an air quality advisory for the area in and around Kingsvale. The truck was carrying consumer pool chemicals.

Final election results due today

Nearly 180,000 absentee ballots are being counted, and the final voting results should be available today.

With the recount, the 9-vote spread in Courtney-Comox was increased in favour of the NDP, to 13 votes.

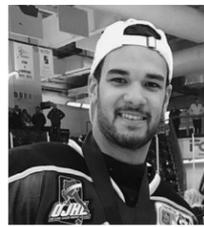

VVA fund

Last month, the Valley Visual Artists presented a cheque in the amount of $2,316.56 to the Nicola Valley Community Arts Council. The donation will be used to establish a Valley Visual Arts fund for visual arts workshops, for established & emerging artists to enhance their skills and abilities. Heartbreak for Vees (@ RBC Cup)

"After an emotional 32-game playoff run, which included three Game 7 and six elimination game wins, the Penticton Vees season ended Saturday afternoon in Cobourg, On., in a 3-1 loss to the Cobourg Cougars in Semi-Final action at the RBC Cup. Cobourg's Theo Lewis scored the game-winner with just over eight-minutes left in the third period to break a 1-1 deadlock, and Spencer Roberts sealed the win for the hosts Cougars with an empty-net goal with just over a minute left in regulation. Stefano Durante, the RBC Cup Top Goaltender, picked up the win, kicking out 26 shots." — Castanet.net

[Editor: We bring you this story because of our connection to Theo. He is my sister Shelley's son, at the end his 5-year hockey career in the OJHL. Waytago, Theo! — Kim Leclair]
